

REDESIGN A BOOK COVER

MURDER MOST UNLADYLIKE

ROBIN STEVENS

BRIEF

We would like you to design a fresh and exciting cover look for this fabulous and fun book. Primarily aimed at children aged 9 to 11, your design should ensure that this book opens the door to reading the whole series and cements its place as a must-read for mystery fans, as well as welcoming new readers to the adventures that are full of friendship and intrigue.

Murder Most Unladylike is the first book in a series of 10. As part of your cover design, you are required to design a series logo. The logo can be any shape you wish, but it must include the series name – A Murder Most Unladylike Mystery. The logo can be typographic only or you may wish to include simple images or graphic icons. Your logo design will need to work effectively at different sizes and should appear on the front cover and the spine of your design. You should also consider that the logo needs to work in isolation as well as complementing your cover design.

Your cover design needs to include all the cover copy supplied and be designed to the specified design template (B format, 198mm high x 129mm wide, spine width 21.5mm), incorporating the Puffin branding and all additional elements such as the barcode.

REDESIGNED BOOK COVER

When Daisy Wells and Hazel Wong set up their very own secret detective agency at Deepdean School for Girls, they struggle to find any truly exciting mysteries to investigate. (Unless you count the case of Lavinia's missing tie. Which they don't.)

Then Hazel discovers the Science Mistress, Miss Bell, lying dead in the Gym. She assumes it was a terrible accident – but when she and Daisy return five minutes later, the body has disappeared. Now Hazel and Daisy not only have a murder to solve: they have to prove one happened in the first place.

Determined to get to the bottom of the crime before the killer strikes again (and before the police can get there first, naturally), Hazel and Daisy must hunt for evidence, spy on their suspects and use all the cunning and intuition they can muster. But will they succeed?

And can their friendship stand the test?
